Paulie Beretta Look at the sinister smirk on his face. His first words upon capture - "What took you so long?" I bet those detectives were smiling more after they all received promotions for nailing DB.

Their superiors should be ashamed for closing the case when they did. Every one of them knew DB was not the lone gunman. The Queens D.A. begged and pleaded with the judge to further the investigation, but to no avail. Thankfully, the SOS case has been reopened in Yonkers. And hopefully the victims' families will receive closure in this lifetime.

David Anton My freind Phil lived in Pine Street- we hung out there a lot those years- Phil used to see Berkowitz on the elevator-he was a strange dude. What about all the happenings at Untemeyer Park? Did anyone remember the satanic altar, down from the eagles nest part of the park? ERIE!!!

Carol Ann And now he's in jail preaching the bible!

April 26, 2009 at 2:11am

carol c whose bible his or a christian one?

April 26, 2009 at 5:31am

David Anton An investigative reporter (probably Gannett) called me in 1980- around time that a LOT of Sam Carr's family and members of the "cult" were being assassinated across the country (NY to California). He asked me if I could recall if Berkowitz came in to Transit towing to pay the tow for Sam Carr's yellow VW bug. I used to hang out and do odd jobs there. A shiver ran up my spine when I got off the phone with him and called the Yonkers police to verify if there was indeed an investigator by the namegiven me- to which the desk sergeant replied "Never heard of him here" , "No". He then realized that this guy that called was an "investigative REPORTER". Not the investigator that he tried to pass himself off as. If they could have confirmed that- then Sam Carr would have been tied into the killings. BTW- the INVSTIGATIVE REPORTER is the guy that wrote the sreenplay for the Son of Sam movie...looks like evryone made out on this..still open pieces to the puzzle though- we may never know.

April 26, 2009 at 2:33pm

Paulie Beretta The investigative reporter was named Maury Terry, who was a writer for the Herald Statesman and later wrote the critically acclaimed, "The Ultimate Evil" in 1987, which detailed the SOS shootings and nationwide satanic cult that DB was connected to. Mr. Terry did not write the screenplay to "Summer of Sam", which I assume is what you are alluding to.

Not sure why Sam Carr would be implicated in any way, shape, or form - unless - the VW was registered to him. The only thing I've found him guilty of is the spawning of two degenerate sons. Perhaps you meant John or Michael ? They were his sons who turned up dead in North Dakota and along the West Side Highway, clearly victims of foul play.

Ironically, it was Sam Carr's daughter, Wheat, who was the dispatcher for the YPD that took the call from the NYPD that they had received information tying DB as a potential 'witness' to a shooting. Little did they know at the time -- One week later DB was in custody.

April 26, 2009 at 9:07pm

David Anton YES! Maury Terry!!!! Look at the credits- I KNOW he was at the very least connected- maybe as a consultant. Nice Call! AND the VW WAS registered to Sam Carr - all the more reason to connect the two. That's what he was after, in a sleazy way- I felt he was misrepresenting himself - but then, that probably happens a lot in the journalism world, to "get the goods". Wasn't it in 1980, that the killings took place? Such IRONY- but also, many questions still linger...that case slammed shut real fast, and quite a number of promotions, if I recall.

April 26, 2009 at 11:22pm

Carol Ann He "claims" he's a Christian now and spends most of his days preaching to the other inmates about Jesus & the bible.

April 27, 2009 at 2:40am

Jack Racioppi it was the summer of 1977

April 27, 2009 at 9:05am · 2

Paulie Beretta David -

Maury Terry was not involved whatsoever in the making of "Summer of Sam". It was Jimmy Breslin of the NY Daily News that was featured in the film. Mr. Breslin was the recipient of the infamous SOS letters, which were penned by Berkowitz. Mr. Terry is a man of integrity and would not have accepted the least of gratuities to appear in such a second-rate, sophomoric presentation.

No idea what you're on about when you say that Mr. Terry was 'misrepresenting himself', as such insinuations could be no further from the truth. Read "The Ultimate Evil" and then tell me what you think about the author - I'll lay 10-1 that after reading cover to cover, you will have at the very least gained insight and appreciation of his extensive research, and at best, been left jaw-dropped and awe-inspired (as I was).

The SOS murders began in July of '76 and ended in July of '77, the last being the Moskowitz-Violente shooting on July 31st, two days after the first anniversary of the Donna.....

April 27, 2009 at 9:13am · 1

Paulie Beretta Lauria shooting. DB was captured ten days later.

I was being cryptically facetious when referring to a VW registered to Sam Carr. There is no evidence linking Mr. Carr to any of DB's or his sons' transgressions. He notified the police after receiving threatening letters (from DB) in reference to his dog (the black Labrador) Harvey's barking. The police took no action and weeks later Mr. Carr found Harvey laying bleeding in the yard from a gunshot wound - No doubt the insidious work of Berkowitz.

The yellow VW Beetle was the vehicle identified by multiple eyewitnesses speeding away from the crime scene in Brooklyn after the Stacy Moskowitz shooting. The evidence overwhelmingly dictates that DB was not the triggerman on this night, but merely a lookout. The sketches released to the public did not remotely resemble DB. Could have very well been Michael Carr, or, who knows, might have even been a female. DB claimed that there were multiple accomplices at the crime scene that night.....

April 27, 2009 at 9:21am

Paulie Beretta (including a female), as many as six, two of which may have been as bold to record footage.

Like you said, many questions still linger... and many questions have already been answered (imho).

The $64k question is - Who has the courage to step forward ?

April 27, 2009 at 9:23am

David Anton Many people connected to it are either dead by now, or don't want to remember. I Do REMEMBER that Maury Terry phone call though- and he did state that he was an INVESTIGATOR working on the Son of Sam case. The murders took place in the summer of 77, but the phone call I received was at least 1980 - I had moved there from Yonkers that year and remember hearing about the post-SAM killings.

Hey- maybe he'll call you one of these day- LOL
Paulie- are you a journalist? Thanks for the insight, but you weren't on the phone, and it (that call) really bothered me. I have no agenda here, except to possibly stamp out sesquipedalianism.

Rich Prendergast Never found that out Dave. Some of the dogs were buried near the altar, & others on the Aqueduct.

August 9 at 9:33am

David Anton Found what Rich- the cross, or Sam's dog?

August 9 at 10:41am

Rich Prendergast How he got & erected all that crap! I believe we found & dug up most of the dogs. I LOVE dogs more than I do most people & had tears in my eyes thru most of an agonizing experience & could have put that bastard out of his miserable life right there...if had the chance & put him in the hole(s) where the dogs were.

August 9 at 10:51am

David Anton I Love dogs too!! I could understand the rage you must have felt. He had to have help though- always puzzled me. Maury Terry was trying to tie Berkowitz to Sam Carr's yellow VW bug- Berkowitz may have picked up the illegally parked car after it was towed, from the Transit Towing lot. Ironic how the owner of Transit was saying before that -he was going to find the bastard and get the reward money, and Berkowitz may just have paid him to get the car from him.

August 9 at 12:28pm

Mary Squazzo I lived on Grove St. right below Pine Street and the apt. building was directly across the street. My window looked out on the pool and small playground area. Berkowitz would have shot directly over my house to get to Carr's, as they lived behind me on the other side of the aqueduct. Pretty scary back then.

August 9 at 12:41pm

Wheat M Carr Let me clear up a few more myths for you. Because of our business, when John was in 2nd grade, my father had a "childrens" phone installed so our calls would not come into my mother's business. It was listed, as were many children's phones of that era with both our names John (whose middle name is Charles) and my name Wheat.

Wheat M Carr Let correct something, my brother Michael did work in the Answering service some evenings and night shifts, facts which were extensively investigated by the YPD - including taking number of the time stamped message slips written (I know a number of ladies who worked for my mother in this group and can verify that time stamping was extremely important. They also spoke with customers who had spoken with Michael to confirm he could not have been anywhere but home.
August 13 at 6:02pm · 3

Wheat M Carr Maury Terry had his won agenda and had he bothered to actually verify any of his facts, he would have known that John was out of the country courtesy of the USAF - and was not stationed in No Dak until after 1974 - for the curious, if you would like to read the most factual book, I recommend Jimmy Breslin's .44 Caliber Killer
August 13 at 6:09pm · 2

Wheat M Carr Last but not least and certainly ignored by Maury Terry and others, let me mention, that Berkowitz sent several HUNDRED letters promising to get even with my Family by implacating Michael and John - something YPD and SEVERAL NYC DA's could confirm. These letters and the efforts of my family to get Berkowitz off the street THE FIRST SUMMER are not well known because both cities (with good reason) had/have a great deal of reason to be concerned crippling financial settlement from negligence lawsuits. BTW, did you know you say anything you want once a person is dead? Sure made it easy for headline hungry to destroy my brothers and in spite of his other problems, particularly those who thought they had a grudge left over from high school.

Louisa Smith Deltreste Wheat M Carr, I am so sorry about Your dog. It must have been a very hard time for You and Your Family. I know You are a good person and thats all that really matters. What ever is being said here is just hearsay as far as I am concerned. Thanks for coming forward with the info Maybe it will shed some light on what was said! Anyway hope all is well. Take care for now! (((((♥))))))

Jackie Paris Wheat with the amount of turn over it is no wonder you remember any of us. i was not there the night that happened

Jackie Paris and i remmeber the time stamp, and sorry for the incorrect name for Harvey,,, it was a horrible time for everyone, we were all scared, but i would thnk that the Carr's were so distraught with all of it...

Susan Falcone Daquino When I think of all the hours my boyfriend and I sat in his car at that time. Only we "sat" in Yonkers and Son of Sam chose the burroughs of New York to wreak his havoc.

Rich Prendergast High Wheat! Man it's been such a long time..huh? how have you been? Gotta get a kick outa all the rumors & such. Where do they hear all this crap? I wouldn't be surprised if it goes on much longer, that you were his accomplice!(LOL) In answer to your question, I was asked in this format about 2 weeks ago, if I could recognize any of the cops, & I gave the same answer as you did.

Rich Prendergast Hey guys & girls..listen up! Don't you think Wheat has heard & read enough about this? Every writing has to open new wounds for her.This seems to be unending. Put yourself in her place. Would you want all this banter time & again.? I worked with Wheat eons ago, & she was a nice sensitive young lady. PLEASE!...Let's put it to rest & move on to more uplifting trivia. Thanks, rjp

Jackie Paris well said Rich..

Lorraine Trahey Gorman I think I have the headline for this, freaked me out totally since I knew Sam Carr. Let me see if I can find it...

Wheat M Carr #Rich Prendergast Thankyou, still sometimes it is good to be able to respond, something we both know I was, on one hand not allowed to do and on the other - as the editor of the Statesman told me... "We cannot publish a letter from you in response to our un-named source"

Sarah Barysauskas Hi Wheat. I am glad you spoke up to clear up some of the urban legends associated with with the Berkowitz case. There seems to be a sort of 'cult' following on the whole thing (no pun intended), and it's good to have someone who really know... See More

William Listwan I remember this I was young when it was happening and my mom was freaked out with all the other rumors going on about this when I got older I visited the so called caves behind St Johns and there was graffitti and stuff, once my older broth... See More

Sarah Barysaukas Yes, there was a Satanic Cult at Untermyer Park and yes there was David Berkowitz, But aside from his psychotic diatribe, I don't think anyone ever definitively connected the two together. And I don't think anyone definitively connected Sam Carr to the cult.

Tuesday at 2:28pm

William Listwan who is Sam Carr? and I knew about the Satanic Cult a friend of mine older bro was in it

Tuesday at 2:30pm

Tuesday at 3:30pm

Janice Jones last i talked to charlie was around 1983 and i havent seen brian is such a long time no idea where any of them are now

Tuesday at 3:45pm

Wheat M Carr #Rich Prendergast I am just glad my parents are not put this anymore - bad enough to have Mike & John slandered without the means to defend themselves, but if people realized the hurt these false allegations hurt the children and other people who loved them. Lots of people

Tuesday at 3:59pm · 1

Wheat M Carr Lots of people suffered huge losses - children, marriages, We were just glad their ex-wives were able to keep the press and thrill seekers away from the babies and always grateful to the way almost everything one in the North tried to keep...

Joe Masterson wheat i remember your dad i was working at grand -glick at the time n you and your dad use to come in and get papergoods... yor dad was a great guy

Tuesday at 4:09pm

Wheat M Carr And I remember you, good to hear you are also alive and well

Tuesday at 4:12pm

Mary Squazzo Speaking of rememebering people, Wheat, do you remember Gloria Wolfe..her family owned/operated Woolf's deli ????

Tuesday at 4:16pm

Wheat M Carr Gloria and I were BFF's and stayed close until her death - The only member of the family I lost track of was Gene's wife after his death. Lee (her mom) stayed in touch with my mom until the auto accident. I think the same guy who bought the store from them still owns it.

Tuesday at 4:20pm

Mary Squazzo OMG....I didn't know about Gloria or her family. what happened ?

Tuesday at 4:22pm

Mary Squazzo I went through school (school 25) with Gloria and barbara Ferguson.

Tuesday at 4:24pm

Wheat M Carr Gene had a heart attack very very young, his baby was only about year or less as I remember (but could be wrong) I don't really know the details about Lee - She was in Florida by then with 2nd Husband. Gloria was in the South West so again details were sketchy.

Tuesday at 4:25pm

Wheat M Carr I remember Barbara well, we ran together for awhile in Junior High. One of hte people I wish I could find is either Gail Shebroe Alexander or her sister Pam -

Tuesday at 4:27pm

Mary Squazzo Don't know those names....wish I could help.

Wheat M Carr Okay more fact corrections, Berkowitz did not own a dog. The Carr family did not have home delivery (Sam believed in supporting his friend down the street who sold the Statesman. Technically the dog was a gift to me from a buddy in YPD ...

Roy Odell They caught him down the street from where I worked at the time "The Hudson River Museum"

Wednesday at 6:09pm

Pete Scuderi I thought they caught him on his street

Wednesday at 6:25pm

Mary Squazzo From what I remember..they apprehended him on Pine Street.

Wednesday at 6:35pm

Charles Ott Look it up....It is a matter of FACT that Queens DA John Santucci -- who had five of the eight separate SOS attacks in his jurisdiction -- agreed with Maury Terry re: a conspiracy. The DA said so publicly as far back as 1981.... Look it up...

Wednesday at 9:09pm

Charles Ott I am not making a judgement on Jimmy Breslin's book here...fact or fiction...BUT...It is also a matter of fact that, in 1996, the YONKERS PD itself re-opened the SOS case. In 1998, they also agreed with Terry and determined Berkowitz was NOT alone. That is public record.

The evidence of a conspiracy is overwhelming, no matter how much a 'few' would like to pretend otherwise.
